Roger Babson Discusses Inflation in '48

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 9.—In addition to my formal forecasts which were in the Arlington News last week, I now want to add something for readers to think over.

As heretofore stated, 1948 will be much like 1947,—at least up to Nov. 2. With most manufacturing companies enjoying large unfilled orders, there can be no depression in 1948. There, however, will be an increase in war preparations. This will mean the shifting of employment and credits from one industry to another. For instance, we may expect some slackening in industries devoted wholly to unessential peace work. Industries which were booming during World War II, such as aircraft manufacturing, machine tools and shipbuilding, should pick up again during 1948.

If you are undecided as to how some special business will act in 1948, just consider how that business acted in the years 1938 to 1940. If the business prospered during those years, it will probably show increased activity during 1948. If it suffered, it may show a

ELECTRICAL FAIR SET FOR JAN. 13 and 14

4-In. 'Flurry' Visits Town

Arlington Public Works Department crews continued to battle the snow this week as additional storms became so common that they almost ceased to be news.

Latest storm occurred Tuesday when a "flurry" with four-inch fringe of snow on top, piled up more white stuff for public works employees to contend with. The newspaper reported, was again caught with its charts down as the "sneak snowstorm" suddenly developed and brought a new snowfall on top of last Friday's storm.

Schools were closed Wednesday afternoon as the fluffy snow, covering icy roads, created treacherous conditions for small children going to and from schools. They were re-opened yesterday morning as the day turned out clear and roads had been plowed.

While it was necessary to concentrate on plowing and snow removal to keep the already-narrow open — at least one car width —

Plans have been completed for the Arlington Electrical Fair which will be presented at the Robbins Town Hall next Tuesday and Wednesday under the sponsorship of the Boston Edison Company and the electrical dealers of Arlington. The instructive and entertaining show—open free of charge to the general public—is the first of its kind in Arlington since prewar days.

Doors will open at 1 p.m. and the Electrical Fair will continue through the afternoon and evening, closing at 10 o'clock.

Arlington Girl On Metropolitan Auditions Program Next Sunday

An Arlington girl and a Brooklyn, N. Y., man will comprise the second pair of contestants to be heard on the Metropolitan Opera Auditions of the Air Sunday, Jan. 11, at 4:30 p.m., over the nationwide network of the American Broadcasting Company.

Chosen from a large group of contestants to be the second female and male vocalists on the radio program are mezzo-soprano Bette Dubro, 24, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Gilman, 1500 Massachusetts ave., Arlington, and Tenor Michael P. Guida, 27, Brooklyn, N.Y.

After an absence from radio of three years, Miss Dubro will be heard singing "O Don Fatale" from "Don Carlos" by Verdi and "Through the Years" by Vincent Youmans. Later in the program Miss Dubro and Mr. Guida will be heard in the love duet from "Boris Godunov" by Moussorgsky and a Rodgers and Hart medley.

Miss Dubro, whose father is a well known Arlington contractor, attended the public schools of Arlington and began her study of voice at the Malkin Conservatory of Music in Boston. During this period, when she was a lyric coloratura, she was frequently heard in Boston over Radio Station WMEX on the program "Curtain Time." She went to New York in 1943 to study with Ettore Verna and, since that time, has developed into a mezzo-soprano. Last summer she went to Italy where she made her operatic debut in Milan at the Teatro Lyrico as "Azuena" in "Il Trovatore."

From the Metropolitan Opera Auditions of the Air have come more than 40 singers, who have joined the Metropolitan Opera Association, including Rise Stevens, Robert Merrill and Eleanor Steber. As a result of their appearances on this nationwide broadcast Jan. 11, both Miss Dubro and Mr. Guida will get their chances at contracts with the famous opera company.

Boys' Club Board to Hold Meeting

Arlington Boys Club president William C. Adams announced this week that the annual meeting and dinner of the board of directors will be held in the Boys Club dining room on Jan. 15.

Because of the increase in membership, expansion of program becomes more necessary and the pending annual meeting is expected to be one of the most important in the history of the Arlington Boys Club.

B. C. Student Proves Hero

Heroic work on the part of a 16-year-old Wakefield youth and 20 skaters who formed a human chain across the ice on the Mystic Lake saved two Arlington young men from drowning after they had crashed through the ice on New Year's Day afternoon.

Prominent in the dramatic rescue was Philip McAuliffe, 16, of 35 Fairmont ave., Wakefield, a Boston College freshman, who dived in, skates, clothes, and all, and helped one of the Arlington boys above the water until the human chain was organized. First to fall through the thin ice.

Trinity Church Opens
Crusade for Christ

The Crusade for Christ through Evangelism was launched at Trinity Baptist Church on Sunday, with the observance of "Enrollment Sunday". The Crusade will be a two-year program, carried on simultaneously by all Baptist churches throughout the Northern Baptist Convention.

Rev. Lewis W. Williamson, pastor, preached the enrollment sermon, "Consider Your Calling", and a large number of the members enrolled for attendance at the series of conferences on evangelism. These will be held on Wednesday evenings during January, and will determine the course which Trinity's Crusade will pursue in this work. The crusade committee is headed by Ralph Daman, chairman, with Harold Harlow, Eleanor Pangborn and Kenneth Draper directing the work of the three divisions of the crusade. Members of the general committee include Mrs. Virginia Anderson, church clerk, the board of deacons, and several others who have volunteered for service.

There will be a week of evangelistic services in the church, beginning on Sunday evening, Feb. 29, and continuing each evening, except Saturday, through Sunday, March 7. The preacher will be Rev. William T. Murphy, pastor of the East Lynn Baptist Church.

CATHOLIC WOMEN'S CLUB

On Wednesday evening, Jan. 14, in Legion Hall the Arlington Catholic Women's Club will hold the first business meeting of the New Year. Miss Eva Marie Casey will be guest speaker.

Hardy PTA to Have
Panel Discussion

A panel discussion by Arlington High School students on "Opportunities for Youth in Arlington" will feature the January meeting of the Hardy PTA next Tuesday at 8 p. m. in the school hall.

A musical program will follow and refreshments will be served by mothers.

Mrs. Milton Bretscher will preside.

Engagement Announced

Colonel and Mrs. Carroll Andrew Edson of 807 Comstock Avenue, Syracuse, N. Y., formerly of Arlington, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Virginia Crane Edson, to Regis Powell Deuel of Binghamton, New York. Miss Edson, a graduate of Colby Junior College in 1945 and of Syracuse University in 1947, is now teaching in the Intermediate Department of the Gordon Private School, Providence, R. I.

Mr. Deuel served for three years in the 103rd Infantry Division of the United States Army during the war. A member of the Theta Chi Fraternity, he is now a Senior in the College of Business Administration at Syracuse University.

No definite date for the wedding has been set.

SILVER ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. John Lester of Ayer, formerly of Woburn, celebrated their silver anniversary on New Year's eve at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Chenoweth of 148 Westminster ave., Arlington. A delicious collation was served and a large number of guests enjoyed a pleasant evening.

Contract Awarded
For Super Bridge

The first contract for construction work on the $27,000,000 Mystic river toll bridge, gigantic traffic relief project to be completed in 1950, has been awarded, Ephraim A. Brest, chairman of the Mystic River Bridge Authority announced this week. Atty. Frank Ramacorti of Arlington is a member of the Bridge Authority.

The contract, for the construction of two piers, was awarded to the lowest bidder, V. Barletta company of Roslindale. The bid was $269,869.50. The firm is well known in Massachusetts for its construction of the Fore River, Quincy, bridge and other work with the state highway department.

The piers to be built will eventually support a span over the Mystic river, the strip of water between Charlestown and the Boston and Maine freight yards.

The Charlestown pier will be constructed on part of the Barry playground, which during the war was taken over completely by the Navy. Changing original engineering plans, the Authority is now taking the eastern quarter of the playground, so that Charlestown children will have space for play as they did before the war.

More than two miles long, the high-level Mystic bridge stretching from Charlestown to Chelsea, will be one of the wonders of New England when completed. It will be the largest bridge ever constructed in these states. It will embody modern bridge building techniques as developed in such structures as the Triborough and Henry Hudson bridges, in New York, and the famous Golden Gate bridge in San Francisco. The plan for financing the huge undertaking is the same as used so successfully on those bridges. Without cost to the taxpayers of Massachusetts, construction of the Mystic river bridge will be completely financed by revenue bonds which have already found a ready market with the investing public.

Notes

Troops 3-10-11-23-28

Word has been received from Mrs. L. T. Kewer of the Arlington Girl Scout Council, who is in charge of Girl Scout hospital and shut-in favors and calls for each holiday, that Christmas hospital favors were made by Troop 23. Mrs. J. Herbert Gunnerson, Mrs. Gayle Forbush and Mrs. Channing Hillard, leaders; Christmas shut-in favors made by Troop 28. Mrs. David Shute and Mrs. Harold Noeren, leaders; Troop 28 also made over 20 shut-in calls in the Arlington Heights section singing Christmas carols and delivering favors; Troop 10 made shut-in calls accompanied by Mrs. Kewer and their leader, Mrs. George Alexie, carrying with them favors made by Troop 28. Troop 3, Mrs. J. E. Smith, leader, sang carols at the McDonald Convalescing Home; Troop 11, Mrs. Gordon Williams, Mrs. Edgar C. Vardon and Miss Joan Erickson, leaders, held group singing on Wellington st., also stopping at the home of Mrs. James A. Bailey, a member of the advisory board of the Girl Scout Council; and Troop 3 made New Year's Day hospital favors.

The fourth meeting of the Arlington Senior Girl Scouts took place on Dec. 15, at the First Baptist Church. Donald Kelly and Helena Hughes presented a show of magic.

The girls had decorated the room superbly for the meeting. The social committee consists of Janet Field, Jean Trainer, Barbara Ayres and Dorothy Foley; the investigating committee: Catherine Sennott, Adella Wallace, Helena Hughes and Ruth Foley. The troop officers are: President, Jane Corie; vice president, Nancy McKenzie; secretary, Barbara Abizaid; treasurer, Jane Wyllie. Nancy Adams, Carol Anderson, Ann Bullock, Hazel Connor, Ann Dudley, Barbara Fleming, Jean Ford, Shirley Keith, Barbara Knight, Marilyn Olson, Nancy Penney, Barbara Spencer, Sally Staudinger, Anita Taylor, and Joan Townsend complete the troop. Mrs. Alfred Yood, Miss Terry O'Brien and Miss Virginia Beaumont are the troop leaders.

Troop 14 has been busy with Christmas projects under the leadership of Mrs. Douglas Mace. Members of this troop are: Rose Melin, Barbara Rudman, Carol Lombardi, Catherine Cook, Gretchen Olson, Patricia Hanlon, Maria Amodeo, Margaret Guy, Elizabeth Doorakian, Mary Pellagrino, Susan DiRusso, Mary Cox, Anne Lees, Marie Poole, Norma Maio, Carol Ford and Nancy Lincoln.

Troop 35 These busy and enthusiastic little Brownies made attractive Christmas sprays for their front doors. Under the leadership of Mrs. Gerald Havey and Mrs. Donald Broughton, the girls have also made pot holders.

The troop members: Connie Bierenbroodspot, Nancy Beagan, Mary Breen, Joanna Center, Janice Deardon, Linda Flores, Jean Frost, Patricia Geagan, Nan Havey, June Howard, Dorothy Peabody, Margaret Syle, Ann Sprissler, Jane Strahan, Ann Smith and Jean Tierney held a Christmas party on the Tuesday before the holiday.

Troop 38 Brownie Troop 38 recently entertained their mothers and at the end of the party each Brownie pinned on her mother a red and green Christmas corsage which had been crocheted by the two assistant leaders, Mrs. Grace Howell and Mrs. William H. Norris. The girls held their own Christmas party at the home of their leader, Mrs. Anna R. Manzelli, during the Christmas vacation.

They are Ellen Donovan, Carol Beals, Sandra, Margaret Glynn, Ann Marie Manzelli, Elaine Manzelli, Deldre Glynn, Eleanor Hogan, Dorothy Durling, Dolores DeCarps, Elaine and Madeline Napolitano, Beverly Geldart, Charlotte Glymer, Pauline Houston, Lorraine Keirstead, Arlene Norris, Linda Zwink, Mary Frazer, Virginia Canning and Jean Howell.

Alpha Pi Chapter
Holds Meeting

The first meeting of the New Year of Alpha Pi Chapter, Beta Sigma Phi Sorority, was held at the home of Miss Dorothy Bergstrom, vice president, on Tuesday evening.

Plans for the ensuing year were discussed and Miss Marcie Donaldson was appointed chairman of the Service Committee.

The entire chapter voted to take as its service work for the year "Infantile Paralysis." Accordingly, the members have offered their services to the local committee to assist in whatever way they can to help make the campaign starting on Jan. 15, a success.

The next meeting will be held at the home of the Director, Miss Bernice H. Holmes, on Tuesday evening, Jan. 20, and further plans for the Valentine Dance to be held at the Commander Hotel, Cambridge, will be discussed.

V. F. W. Notes

In a bid to place the Department of Massachusetts, Veterans of Foreign Wars, in top position in service to Bay State veterans, a state wide school to properly train the individual post service officer will be started immediately under the direction of state VFW Service Officer Samuel I. Williston, according to Dep't Comdr. William F. Hallissy.

Williston, who heads the busy VFW Service Bureau at 1 Court st., Boston, will conduct at least one class a week in a centrally located post in every county in the Commonwealth beginning this week through Feb. 15.

All post commanders, service officers and members in each county are invited to attend three meetings to become better acquainted with the problems of assisting the veterans in their own posts in their claims and entitlements from the Federal, State and Municipal governments.

On Jan. 18 at 2:30 p. m. all members, service officers and members in Middlesex County will be invited to attend the school at the Hoyt Post, Cambridge. Middlesex County Commander William J. Burns will assist Williston at this meeting.

Miss Russell Engaged

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth S. Russell of 12 Pine Ridge road, announce the engagement of their daughter, Jean Elizabeth, to Robert E. Turkel of 6 Geneva road, Melrose.

Miss Russell is a graduate of Arlington High School and Katharine Gibbs School. Mr. Turkel is a graduate of Melrose High School and served in the Navy during the war. He is now a senior at M. I. T. and is a member of Alpha Kappa Nu and Phi Kappa Sigma fraternities. No date has been set for the wedding.

IN BURDETT SHOW

The Dramatic Club of Burdett College in Boston presented a cabaret on Wednesday. Among the members of this organization who participated in the production are the Misses Miriam E. Ladd, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard M. Ladd of 67 Bartlett ave., Geraldine A. Lamb, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George J. Lamb of 50 Wyman st., and Mary P. Naughton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Naughton of 251 Appleton st.

DeMOLAY MOTHERS TO MEET The next meeting of the DeMolay Mothers Club will be held on Tuesday at 8 p. m. at the home of Mrs. Arch Oake, 10 Vincent ave., Belmont. Members are invited to invite a friend.

Lions Club Launches
Membership Drive

The first dinner meeting of the Arlington Lions Club for the year 1948 was held Monday evening at Chestnut Hall.

Dr. Donald Horley presided at a lengthy business meeting during which the Melvin Jones birthday drive for members, which starts this month, was discussed. The Arlington club will extend its drive over two months, during which prospective members will be invited to join the club.

Plans for the club's 10th anniversary celebration, to be held in April, were also outlined.

Ray Morrill reported on the successful Christmas party held at the Bear Hill Country Club. He also read a New Year's greeting from Lion Bill Dee, who recently left for Lewiston, Me., where he has accepted a new position.

Congratulations were extended to Nat Vadala of 21 Westminster ave. He and Mrs. Vadala recently celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary.

Lion Tom Mullane presented Jimmie Conway of Cambridge, who entertained with a few Irish stories and songs.

Miss Quirk Engaged

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Quirk of Arlington announce the engagement of their daughter, Mary Agnes, to George Joseph Remmert, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold A. Remmert of East Hartford, Conn.

Miss Quirk is a graduate of Salem Teachers College and at present is teaching in Lexington. Mr. Remmert is a graduate of Holy Cross College and at present is attending Boston College Law School. During the war he served as an ensign in the Navy.

Senator Harris S. Richardson of Winchester, Arlington's representative in the State Senate, was elected president of that body on Wednesday, receiving 19 of the 32 votes cast.

Top Headliners at Sportsmen's Show

It's a truly star-studded bill of entertainment which has been signed for the 24th annual New England Sportsmen's and Boat Show to be staged at Mechanics Building, Jan. 31 through Feb. 8, under the sponsorship and operation of the Campbell Fairbanks Expositions.

Babe Didrikson Zaharias, the incomparable Babe herself, title holder of half a dozen sports, nationally and internationally known, greatest woman athlete of all time, will headline the best array of sports events ever outlined for this big show, which each year plays to more than 180,000 persons here. Sharkey, the only talking seal in the world, will again be a headline.

New comers to the Sportsmen and Boat Show will be The Skating Earls, unequalled in the presentation of straight skating and comedy stunts. Also new will be Gypsy, Bang, Cap and Curly, retrieving dogs of Clarence Hauwiler, said to be the most remarkable retrievers ever shown at any show. And Bud Carrell and Rose, champion boomerang and Australian Whip manipulators, are likewise newcomers to this country. Their act has proven sensational in Europe and "down under." Then still another new act is that of Russ Dotson and His Diving Collegians, the sensations of the Atlantic City Steel Pier of last season.

Family Will Fly To Greece to Join Husband and Father

Mrs. Harold Chadbourne Harlow, Jr., of Northampton, her baby son, Richard, born Oct. 18, and her small daughter, Linda, four, expect to fly to Greece today to join Mr. Harlow who is now at work under the joint auspices of the Congregational Christian Service Committee and the American Board of Foreign Missions in Athens, Greece, and who reached Greece the day his son was born in Massachusetts.

Mr. Harlow is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold C. Harlow, 153 Brooks ave., and was educated in Dartmouth College, Yale University and Boston University Graduate School of Social Work. For a time he served with the Boston YMCA, and with the Red Cross at Lovell Hospital, Fort Devens. Later he was Administrative Sergeant Major of the 7th General Hospital and an Intelligence Officer in the OSS traveling extensively in India, Burma, Ceylon, China, Malay, Netherlands East Indies.

Writing from Greece, Mr. Harlow reports the opening in bombed-out Elliniko, near Greece, of a clinic being conducted jointly by the Congregational Christian Service Committee and Pierce College, founded by the American Board. Elliniko has had no doctor since the war ended.

Describing the touching scene at the dedication of the Clinic, Mr. Harlow tells of the crowds that flocked to greet him with smiles and handshakes; of the Greek Orthodox priests who opened the ceremonies with prayers; of the huge Greek and American flags that hung side by side; and of the choir of children that serenaded him with the Star Spangled Banner as well as the Greek National Anthem.

Brady on K. of C. Lecture Committee

James E. Brady, program director of Cardinal O'Connell Council, K. of C., and prominent local K. of C. leader, was this week named to the committee sponsoring a series of three forum lectures on the Taft-Hartley Labor Law. The lectures will be given in the Embassy Room of the Hotel Kenmore on Jan. 9, 16 and 25 by Rev. Ernest Foley, S. J., under the sponsorship of the State Council, K. of C.

Fr. Foley, professor of Economics at Boston College and Chairman of the Industrial Relations Council, an accepted authority on labor problems, is giving this "encore" by popular demand, having completed a similar series prior to Thanksgiving. This series of three lectures is scheduled to start at 8:30 p. m., and all Arlington Knights of Columbus have been invited to attend.

Well known in the fraternal, civic and charitable affairs of Arlington, Brady is 5 Point Program chairman of Cardinal O'Connell Council, and was last July elected to the office of advocate in his home council. He is manufacturing superintendent of Chilton Greetings Co., Boston, and a graduate of Notre Dame University.

Typical Case Shows How Social Security Helps Those in Need

It Happens Every Day. In the Social Security Administration Offices James T. Phelan, manager of the Social Security Administration Office, at 1248 Massachusetts ave., (Harvard Square) Cambridge, the other day gave a concrete example of the way in which the Old-Age and Survivors Insurance program operates every day to protect both young and old against one of the common and ever present dangers of modern life, death.

It was the case of the Wilson family as we will call them. Harry Wilson age 40, was a butcher. His pay was good and he was a good provider for his wife and their three minor children. The Wilsons liked life; it was good to them. Mrs. Wilson was primarily interested in her children, and with her husband in good health, social security did not play a large part in her daily thinking and activity. Then the Wilson world fell apart. Over-lifting of heavy quarters of beef, followed by a too lively soft ball game with the children, brought on a heart attack that carried Harry off in a matter of seconds. The pressing problem suddenly became, not how to give the children as much schooling as possible, but how to feed four people. Like most of us, the Wilsons were completely dependent on their current income, which was good enough — while it lasted.

One of the solutions advanced by friends and neighbors of the family was to take the oldest child out of high school and allow him to go to work. This, with what income Mrs. Wilson might have been able to bring in might have seen the family through, but at the expense of a high school education. This might have been the answer to the problem, but what a price — considering the plans and dreams the Wilsons had for their children.

Benefits Total $77 Monthly. In this case, as in those of others, Social Security was able to help. Harry's employer reported his death to Mr. Phelan's office and Mrs. Wilson called at the office and filed claim for benefits which were paid for by her deceased husband. The total of these benefits was $77.70 a month — not a large sum, but with careful management and part time income, one that was helpful sending all of the children through high school.

Mr. Phelan felt however that in this period of high living costs, the present benefit scale loses some of its significance. Also benefits that workers may receive who retire from employment, nevertheless, the present limitations of Social Security benefits in the Old-Age and Survivors Insurance program do not obscure the fact that these benefits are a potential force in aiding approximately half of the nation. It has been shown by statis-

Complimenting the NEWS on its editorial of last week, in which the people of Arlington were urged to join the Arlington Citizens Committee to make it a powerful instrument for good government, John J. O'Neil of 41 Kenilworth road, issued the following statement this week:

"As membership chairman of the Arlington Citizens' Committee, I am trying to enlist the citizens of our town in making this organization as strong as it was at one time.

"This organization is non-partisan and is made up of all citizens regardless of race, creed or party. Our aim is to maintain a high standard of honesty and efficiency in the conduct of the Town's governmental affairs, by endorsing and assisting in the election of such candidates as will insure the maintenance of efficient and honest operation of the Town Boards and departments.

"This pledge has been given by the present officers and they will see that it is carried out in full.

"The dues are one dollar per year, so if any citizen wishes to join, he or she can mail his or her name and address, with telephone number, to me at 41 Kenilworth Road and name will be listed on our committee."

NEED OF FAITH IN GOD

While there was the usual hilarity in larger cities as the New Year was ushered in, a certain restraint was detected and there were smaller crowds of merry-makers out on the streets, according to metropolitan newspaper accounts.

No one can escape the fact that the carefree and optimistic feeling which prevailed immediately after the close of the last war has vanished because of the strained relations between Russia and other nations, the United States particularly. Continued strikes and inflation are among other contributing factors to the not-too-cheerful outlook.

Rightly then, the majority of people turned to their spiritual leaders for a word of encouragement and hope as the New Year dawned. And, in these messages one found the key to happiness and peace of mind in this new year.

While no thoughtful person can look to the year 1948 with the certainty all of us naturally desire, there is no need for despair. Rev. Dr. Frank Jennings, executive secretary of the Massachusetts Council of Churches, said in his New Year's Day message.

"Grave and baffling questions must be faced and they will test the intelligence and courage of the best men in many lands," he said.

"God is still on the side of men of good will and unselfish purpose. The sad state of the human family is the inevitable consequence of man's self-centered pride and greed. People of great faith have always had a sense of responsibility for their fellowmen everywhere. Hate and prejudice cannot exist in the presence of genuine faith.

"There are signs of faith among the nations. The possibilities of sheer nationalism have been tried and found completely wanting. Indeed, we know now, as no generation has ever known it, that life divorced from the great spiritual realities is headed for destruction.

"It is late, but not too late, to change our course. We may now try the way of faith in God as we have tried the ways of our own devices. That way has hope."

Dr. Jennings' words can well set a pattern for a Happy 1948, if all men of good will accept this message seriously and sincerely.

AN AMERICAN INSTITUTION

Each year polio strikes with deadly effect. Each year this mysterious crippling disease attacks thousands of children—killing, maiming, depriving helpless little ones of their right to a normal childhood.

Last year was no exception. The scourge of polio struck again, claiming approximately 10,000 victims. This was the fifth consecutive year of unusually high incidence—five years in which roughly 80,000 persons have been infected with the disease. Thousands of these will require care and treatment for months—even years—to come.

What are we doing to stem this terrible tide? What CAN we do? The MARCH OF DIMES will be held throughout the nation January 15-30. It is our opportunity to engage actively in the fight against infantile paralysis. This is the only annual fund-raising appeal of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, which in 1948 marks a decade of service in fighting polio with the dimes and dollars raised through the MARCH OF DIMES.

The National Foundation is your army, working in the field, fighting epidemics, bringing aid to the stricken, supplying equipment; doctors, nurses, physical therapists and other polio specialists. It assures the best available care and treatment for all, regardless of race or religion. It supports intensive research to find the cause of polio and eliminate it as a threat to our homes and our children.

The MARCH OF DIMES has become an American institution. It is our guarantee that everything possible will be done to repulse the savage onslaught of a mysterious killer.

Join in the fight. Give generously to the MARCH OF DIMES.

THE ROAD AHEAD

This is the age of confusion.

But that does not mean it need be an age of cynical resignation to failure—and of the gradual abandonment of rights and principles that took two thousand years of almost continuous conflict for mankind to secure.

No one can minimize the problems that now confront the nations, ranging from the terrible specter of unleashed atomic energy down to such temporary difficulties as shortages of materials. The very extent and number of these problems have added to the confusion. They have, as the old French proverb says, made it hard to see the forest because of the trees. They have obscured the fact that there is really only one basic problem, and that all the rest hinge upon it in one way or another. That problem is easily put: Sooner or later, the peoples of the world, including the United States, will have to make a complete and final choice between the chimera of "security" and the reality of freedom.

There is a danger in using such words as "freedom" and "liberty" these days. Dictators and tyrants have attempted to pervert them out of any semblance to their true meanings. Hitler, after all, established his slave state and fought his disastrous war for world enslavement with "freedom" and "liberty" as his rallying call. Even so, the real free man can be described. He is free to express his opinion, whether or not it is in agreement with the majority or with the government in power. He is free to worship as he pleases. He is free to print what he thinks in a newspaper, or elsewhere, subject to the old-established laws of libel and public decency. He is free to work or not to work, and to change jobs of his own volition without dictation from employer, labor leader, or politician. He is free to run for public office on any platform he devises, or to vote for the candidate of his choice. He is free to engage in business under a competitive system which penalizes and favors none. He is free to determine his own destiny, and he is not the tool of the state or any other interest.

These are not separate, unrelated entities. Every last one of them is dependent on the others. When one freedom is lost, all the rest are endangered. No dictatorship has ever been established all at once. A right is abrogated here, another there; the state seizes business, then takes over the labor unions; new "interpretations" are placed on the rights of free speech and assembly—so it goes, step after step, until the job of despotism is completed.

Dictators trade on fear—fear of want, fear of hunger, fear of cold, all the natural, material fears. They promise a maximum of material "security" to the tragically confused people they entice. And this poses another question: Can a people, in return for the surrender of their freedoms, obtain more goods, a higher standard of living, a greater measure of protection from adversity?

The question answers itself. The greatest material advancement in the history of the world has been in the nation where there has been the greatest amount of freedom for the individual—the United States. It is not accident that the pay of the average American worker, measured in terms of purchasing power, is ten or a dozen times that of the average Russian worker. A still better comparison is found with present-day England, the country to which we are bound the closest by the ties of a common language, inheritance and tradition. Socialism—which can be the vanguard of dictatorship—has aggravated every English economic problem. It has produced less goods for export, not more goods for export; less coal, not more coal; less agricultural production, not more agricultural production. Worst of all, it has sapped the energies and ambitions of the people. There can never be progress in a state where individual opportunity, initiative and enterprise are discouraged, and the government does all the thinking.

The super-state is not only spiritually barren but materially inefficient. When we attempt to trade freedom for security, we lose both. This thought was perfectly expressed by Somerset Maugham, the most distinguished living British novelist, when he said: "If a nation values anything more than freedom, it will lose its freedom; and the irony of it is that if it is comfort or money that it values more, it will lose that too." That says it all in a sentence.

The hope of this nation is that our people will profit by example. The hope of the world is that it will be able to break the shackles of oppression. The hope of mankind lies in a reaffirmation of the rights and dignity of the individual.

Roger Babson's Column

decline in 1948. There will be no World War III in 1948, but there will be marked preparation for it.

What About Inflation?

During 1948 there will be much talk in Washington about "checking inflation," but any attempts will be largely of the eye-wash variety and not fundamental cures. It is sound legislation to allocate materials to the more important industries. Doubtless certain allocations will be instituted during 1948. It also would help to reduce taxes so as to force people to leave the government employ and to produce. The only solution for inflation, however, is to discourage consumption and encourage production. Unfortunately, when the Government attempts to decrease consumption, people get panicky and increase their purchases; while controls tend to reduce production.

All Government attempts to interfere with the basic laws of supply and demand fail in their purpose. The only cure for rising prices is to let them rise to a point where production will be so profitable that it will increase to an amount which will be in excess of demand. This causes an abrupt decline in prices and in employment also. This cure is unpopular politically, and we will not see it before November 2, 1948.

Beyond allocating materials and reducing taxes, the only fundamental cures which the Government can provide are: (1) putting an embargo on exports, (2) suspending the agricultural price supports, (3) freezing wages and profits, (4) causing interest rates to rise sharply, and (5) reducing Government expenses. These movements would be unpopular politically, and I doubt whether we shall see them in 1948.

All of us are selfish. We don't want the Federal Government to shut off the exports of OUR goods, to suspend price support of OUR products, to freeze OUR wages or profits, to raise the rate of interest which WE are paying,—or to discharge some relative of ours whom we must support,—even although these things would be for the good of the nation as a whole. Hence, I again say,—"only a spiritual awakening can prevent another severe bust."

Political Leaders Lack Courage

Members of Congress and the Administration know what to do. Chairman Eccles of the Federal Reserve Board has given Congress excellent advice, as reported in the morning papers of last Nov. 26. These recommendations, however, are unpopular. Even Congressmen are putting their own selfish desires ahead of the nation's good.

Congressmen are fearful of labor leaders. They are fearful of veterans, thus, unwilling to take a courageous stand on housing and rents. They are fearful of the bankers, in fact, of all pressure groups in Washington. Hence, 1948 will witness more or less of a do-nothing Congress. I visualize that economic conditions will continue about as at present during 1948; but as a fever is necessary to cure many diseases, so economic distress seems necessary to bring people to their senses and to their knees.

DO YOU KNOW THAT. . . The number of wage earners employed on building construction in Massachusetts during November was 7% more than a year ago and nearly two and a half times as large as the average in 1935-1939. . . Average of weekly earnings per building wage earner in November was $37.50, an increase of 5.3% over that a year ago and 96% more than the average in 1935-1939, as reported by Dept. of Labor and Industries. . . Consumption of motor fuel in Massachusetts during the first ten months of 1947 totaled 662,000,000 gallons, 2.6% more than in the same months of 1941 which previously had stood as the all-time peak year. . . The "Hannah," America's first warship and the beginning of the United States Navy was fitted out as a naval vessel at Beverly in 1775 and commanded by Captain Nicholas Broughton. . . Veterans in Massachusetts receiving employment allowances are now reduced to less than 19,000, compared with 44,000 a year ago and a peak number of about 85,000 in April 1946.

The NEWS OBSERVES

Thomas J. O'Neill of the board of public works this week revealed that the park department and the tree warden had lent full cooperation during the recent storms by loaning their equipment to speed up the removal of snow. This is town equipment is used to advantage and for the benefit of taxpayers.

While on the subject of cooperation, residents should lend a hand by keeping paths to their garbage pails clear, and their garbage receptacles free from snow so that collections won't be interrupted again as they were during the storms. Because many failed to cooperate, their neighbors had to suffer inconvenience.

World War II veterans now have until July 31 to reinstate lapsed National Service Life Insurance without a physical examination, in most cases, according to Walter V. Robinson, regional insurance officer for the VA. The time limit had been extended from Dec. 31, 1947, the previously established deadline, to July 31, 1948, in order to give as many veterans as possible, the opportunity to reinstate their lapsed service policies. . . Complete information and advice on insurance matters may be obtained at Veterans Administration City Hall Annex, 57 Inman St., Cambridge.

As John Q. Public tackled his income tax return, President Truman offered a ray of hope this week when he proposed a tax cut of $40 for every individual taxpayer, plus an added cut of $40 for each dependent. Of course, this is a national election year and anything can happen. The proposal, obviously made with an eye on the coming election, immediately raised a first-class row. The issue has all the earmarks of a perfect political football.

One of the quietest New Year's Eve on record was recorded by Arlington police last week. Lt. Thomas Sullivan was in charge at police headquarters as the New Year made its bow. Police responded to two emergency calls from Arlington women whose husbands were getting out of control as they celebrated the New Year. Another call was for an automobile accident in which three were injured.

Last year the State Legislature refused to allow a referendum on Plan E in Boston, a move which smacked of politics since it deprived the citizens of Boston a right to express their opinion on a vital issue. This week Governor Bradford demanded that the Legislature give Boston that right. Otherwise, the voters of that city have no power to act for a change without the Legislature acting. Why such a privilege has been previously denied, we leave it to you to decide.

At least three motorists, whose cars were unregistered for 1948, were stopped by Arlington police, two of them on Monday of this week. The first car stopped at 9:45 a. m., on New Year's Day, was towed to a garage.

"Snow furries again today," remarked a visitor on Wednesday morning as he looked out on the near-blinding storm that turned up as Arlington's weather fare for the January will be disagreeable with only about three days of sunshine, according to a long-range weather forecast, a reader tells us. And no one will argue that point, except that yesterday's sunshine wasn't exactly hard on the eyes.

Heavy snow, turning to ice, on rooftops after Friday's snowstorm created a dangerous hazard and ripped gutters from several houses. Snow hanging over the sidewalk on the roof of the Old Town Hall appeared so threatening on Saturday that wooden horses and lanterns were placed there to protect pedestrians.

Insurance Agency Magazine Features Arlington Man

Andrew A. Skilling of 316 Appleton st., was featured in a recent issue of Equitable Items, published by the Equitable Life Assurance Society of the United States. Says the Items: "After serving as manager of the life insurance departments of two Massachusetts savings banks over a 10-year period, Andrew A. Skilling moved to Boston and went to work for the Society's MacLean Agency in that city. One sales conviction, carried over from his savings bank insurance experience was an outsider's real appreciation of the big service value of the agent in the sale of life insurance. He lost no time in putting that belief into practice.

"That was in September of 1945 and in his first full year with the Society he qualified for the Quarter Million Club. In November of 1947 he was pro rata for the $400,000 Club. Much of his sales volume stems from corporation and tax life insurance, of which he has made a close study.

"During the initial stage of his sales career he was a firm believer in joint work and he has now progressed to the point where he is being sought out by younger men who solicit his own services for joint sales efforts.

"Married and the father of two sons, Mr. Skilling takes an active part in the affairs of his community. He is on the Board of Directors of the Men's Club of the First Baptist Church, is a member of the War Orphans Committee and past secretary of the North Adams Kiwanis Club. He is also a member of the Boston Life Underwriters Association.

An active member of Hiram Lodge, A.F.A.M., Mr. Skilling is studying at Boston University. He was graduated from Winchester schools and was employed by the Arlington Five Cents Savings Bank from 1930 to 1942 and served as manager of its life insurance department from 1935 to 1942. He managed the life insurance department of the North Adams Savings Bank from 1942 to 1945 when he joined the MacLean Agency of the Equitable. He was appointed field assistant in February, 1947.

Mr. Skilling is president of the agency's 20 Grand Club. He also has been active in the financial division of the Boston Community Fund and Red Cross drives.

Mrs. Cannistraro Buys Beauty Shoppe In Arlington Centre

Mrs. Minnie Cannistraro of 12 Endicott st., is the new owner of the Rapid Wave Beauty Salon at 450 Massachusetts ave.

Mrs. Cannistraro boasts 20 years' experience as a hairdresser and is owner and operator of Minnie's Beauty Shoppe in Somerville and Waltham, and formerly of Minnie's in East Arlington. She is a past president of Arlington ladies' lodge Sons of Italy and a member of the Arlington Emblem Club.

Sal Cannistraro, who supervises these beauty shoppes, expects to spend considerable time in Arlington. He is considered an expert on permanent waving and other beauty problems.

Mr. Cannistraro is also active in civic and fraternal organizations, is Past Exalted Ruler of Arlington lodge of Elks, a past Venerable of the Sons of Italy and is a member of the Italian-American Charitable Society, a member of the Arlington Citizens Committee and the Arlington Auxiliary Police.

Mr. and Mrs. Cannistraro will endeavor to serve merrily with the utmost courtesy and quality service, using the finest ingredients that can be procured in the conduct of a beauty salon, which have brought them success for many years.

Chief Daniel B. Tierney was re-appointed by the Board of Selectmen on Monday evening as forest warden for the coming year.

Few Candidates Seeking Office

The board of selectmen at its meeting Monday night voted to close the warrant for the annual town meeting on Jan. 26.

The warrant calls for the town election on March 1 and the first session of the town meeting on March 10.

Persons desiring to insert articles in the warrant must file such articles, signed by at least 10 voters, before Jan. 26.

Few Candidates

Meanwhile, a check yesterday at the office of Town Clerk Earl A. Ryder disclosed that few candidates had taken out papers thus far for major town offices.

Most of those in office have taken their papers out for re-election. Up to yesterday, however, Selectman William C. Adams, who is up for re-election, had not taken out papers.

New office seekers are Wathen B. Henderson of Academy st., who will be a candidate for the three-year term on the cemetery commission, and George A. Goodspeed of 29 Wellington st., who will run for the school committee.

Papers must be filed with the Registrars of Voters by Jan. 26, for major offices.

The same date applies to candidates for town meeting member, with the exception of those running for re-election. The latter town meeting members must file their papers by Jan. 19.

Touchdown Club Honors McCarty

William T. "Doc" McCarty, veteran Arlington High track coach and supervisor of athletics in Junior High Schools, was tendered a testimonial by the Arlington Touchdown Club last evening.

Present at the dinner and testimonial were many former athletes who were tutored by the popular coach, including Harrie Daddman, Harold Kimball and Charlie Adams, both of Connecticut; Forest Cameron of New York, Cricket Morton, William "Peg" Mahoney of the Arlington police department; Leonard Collins, Bill Robinson, Dave Buttrick, Bud Ross, Bill Sinclair, Brainy Bower, "Lead" Plaisle, Clint Peabody, "Spin" Wunderly, Louie Reycoff and John Colbert.

"Doc" McCarty has had an unusually long career in training Arlington youths to fame in athletics in school as well as in college in later years and has inspired them to live up to the ideals of true sportsmanship.

Coming here from Holy Cross in 1911, "Doc" was placed in charge of track and of Spy Pond playground. His big teams were produced in 1912-1915. During that period, he also served as part-time track coach at Tufts College. In 1917, he went to the University of Maine to coach track. During the first World War he served as athletic director with the Army in Italy and Brest. In 1919, he pinched hit as coach of all sports at Arlington High.

Among the prominent athletes whom he coached, besides those already mentioned above, were George "Bulger" Lowe, George Currier, Louis Cousins, Olie Wood, Amegio Chavez, Johnny and Jimmy Kelly, Bill McCarty, Eugene Graf, Gaylord Goldsmith, Joe Zwinge, Abe Landell, Dan Scanlan, Buzz Cooleage, Herbert Buttrick, George Percy and Charles "Oakie" Toomey.

Coach McCarty's Arlington High cross country team won the Mystic Valley championship in 1911, his first year as coach here. Born in Cambridge in 1880, "Doc" McCarty attended Boston English High and B. C. High. He ran for Boston College and, later, Ohio State. He later was a prominent barnstorming runner, appearing at firemen's conventions and county fairs when track competition was an outstanding event at these gatherings. Then followed his term as coach at Holy Cross College before coming to Arlington.

Though Polynesian women tend to grow stout as they grow older, the Polynesians consider this a desirable sign of beauty, according to the Encyclopaedia Britannica.

Local Courtmen Down Brookline In Opener, 26-24

Arlington High's Red and Gray basketball quintet shaded the Brookline cagers, 26-24, in their Suburban League opener on the local court Monday afternoon.

The Brookline second team topped the locals, 24-20, in the other half of the double header.

Tonight, the Arlington hoopers will go to Cambridge for a game at 7.30.

Arlington Wins, 7-1

The Melrose High School hockey team proved no match for the Arlington High skaters Saturday afternoon as the locals walloped the Spotless Towners, 7-1, in a Greater Boston Interscholastic League game.

The GBIs treated the fans to top notch hockey as they resumed competition following the holiday lay-off. Medford topped Stoneham, 4-2, while Newton upset Cambridge Latin, 4-3, in a torrid clash. Belmont had an easy time in setting back Cambridge Latin, 8-1.

Melrose got off to an early lead when, in 15 seconds after the opening faceoff, they scored their lone goal. However, Arlington came back strong and dented the Melrose strings twice, Kelley and Kinney doing the honors.

In the second period, Arlington scored three more off the sticks of Donovan, Leary and Emery. In the final canto, Emery and Kinney each scored again to top off the rout.

The summary: ARLINGTON—Kinney lw; Shea c; Donovan rw; Emery ld; Emmons rd; Campbell g.

Savings Bank Deposits Hit Record High

"Mutual savings bank deposits, approaching $18 billions at the beginning of the new year, are at the highest point in the 131 years of these institutions' service to the nation," said Earl B. Schwulz, president of the National Association of Mutual Savings Banks and executive vice-president, The Bowery Savings Bank, New York in a year-end statement just released.

"These banks are now serving nearly 18 1/2 million depositors, a gain of more than 1 1/2 million accounts since VJ day. Despite the continued high cost of living and a great expansion in the output of consumer durable goods, savings bank depositors have increased their balances nearly $1 billion during 1947.

"The rate of growth of savings has declined from the abnormally high figures attained during the late war years and has resumed a more normal peace-time level. Even so, the volume of new savings during 1947 was in general higher than that of most pre-war years.

"Mortgage loans, traditional form of investment for savings banks, showed an increase, particularly during the latter half of the year. As in 1946, many potential borrowers were war veterans in search of housing and savings banks welcomed the opportunity of helping these veterans to acquire homes. At the same time, savings bankers recognized their responsibilities to advise veterans to avoid undertaking commitments which would burden them excessively in the future.

"As we begin the new year, the major problems of European rehabilitation and the effects of inflationary forces upon our national economy are still with us, but it is encouraging to note that these problems are now being squarely faced by our Congress. In the meantime, we as individual citizens can help in the fight against the forces of inflation by saving more and spending less. I am confident that the great majority of Americans will accept this challenge and through the practice of thrift and the exercise of restraint in spending will help to bring about a greater degree of economic stability and prosperity in the years ahead."

Boy Scout Notes

Troop 8 — 25th Anniversary

The troop's 25th anniversary will be observed at the Pleasant Street Congregational Church next Monday evening at 6:30.

Following dinner, there will be a program of advancement awards in each class made by the troop's first scoutmaster, Stephen Richardson, and by former Eagle scouts. The Eagle Award to Scout Ronald Simmonds will be made by G. Sherman Blair, Sachem Council president. This will make the troop's fifth Eagle Award within a year.

The speaker will be Arlington's grand old man of scouting, Silver Buffalo, George B. C. Rugg.

All past and present troop members, parents, relatives and friends are invited. Dinner tickets may be obtained from committee chairman, Dale Barker, and William R. Berg, Paul Rochford, Ralph S. Stevens at Shattuck's Hardware Store, Herbert L. Converse or J. K. Berry, Jr., members of the troop committee.

Explorer Post 3

Explorer Post 2 enjoyed three days of camping and skiing at Willard Brook State Forest Reservation over the week end. Through arrangements with the Ranger at the reservation, the Post left by train early Friday morning, and hiked up in cabin No. 2, where they were cozy and warm despite the blizzard. Saturday and Sunday a number of ski expeditions over the adjacent hills were taken.

Feature of the trip was the cooking of Chef Doiron, whose flapjacks, meat balls and beef stews are a tradition with the Post. Those taking the trip were Scouts Arthur E. Lansing, Raymond Wilton, Arthur Doiron, Roy Nickerson, Richard Wilson, Eugene McCarty, Edward Brogan and Committee-men Arthur Nickerson and Frank H. Lansing.

Mickey Harris Leaves For Bartow, Florida

Mickey Harris of Mystic St., Boston Red Sox pitcher, left Tuesday for Bartow, Florida, where he will be an instructor in baseball school until March 1 when Red Sox Spring training will get under way at Sarasota, Fla.

Boys' Club Due To Hit Peak

With the new year only a few days along, the first 300 youngsters have already assured themselves of another full year of healthful recreation and good fellowship, plus keen athletic activity by taking out their 1948 membership cards at the Pond Lane clubhouse.

Executive Director Jim Sumner states that boys are discovering that the Boys Club offers a real value in "Boy Interests" when measured by the cost of membership which starts at less than one cent per week for the younger members.

A fine gym and highly capable instructors, bowling, billiards, ping pong and many table games, combined with arts and crafts classes, plus the extremely popular weekly Friday movies complete a very attractive program. In addition, Connie Lyons, coach of the Intermediates and Seniors, has announced the start of a new league in basketball for all members from 15 to 18 years of age. A similar league for members under 15 years will be directed by Bob "Obie" O'Brien.

Card of Thanks

Mrs. Eugene E. Madigan wishes to express deepest gratitude to the following for their kind expression of sympathy during her recent bereavement: The Arlington Boys' Club, the merchants of East Arlington, the Arlington Lodge of Elks, the Arlington Police Department, for police escort and good service, the playmates of her late son, and neighbors of Milton Street.

900,000 Elks to Back Boy Scouts

Boyhood of America to benefit as L. A. Lewis (left), head of B.P.O.E. and Dr. E. K. Fretwell, head of Scouts, lay plans.

The 1,475 lodges of Elksdom, representing some 900,000 members, have adopted for the coming year an aggressive plan to sponsor and assist financially the promotion of the Boy Scout program, Senior Scouting and Cub Scouting, especially in less privileged districts and neighborhoods, according to an announcement by Lafayette A. Lewis, of Los Angeles, newly elected Grand Exalted Ruler of the B.P.O.E. In this connection Colonel Charles Spencer Hart, Past Grand Exalted Ruler, has been appointed to represent the Elks on the National Civic Relationships Committee of the Boy Scouts of America.

On a special trip to New York, Mr. Lewis conferred with Dr. Elbert K. Fretwell, chief Scout executive for the United States; Colonel Hart and Commander Thomas J. Keane, U.S.N.R., National Director of Civic Relations of the Boy Scouts of America, and developed plans for Elk participation.

"Already we have 300 lodges of Elks sponsoring Boy Scout troops and Cub Packs," Lewis declared, "but our goal is to have every one of our 1,475 lodges cooperative with from one to three local Scout units. More than one million boys — nearly 1,100,000 — reach twelve years of age each year and 700,000 of them indicate they want to become Boy Scouts. Yet only 400,000 can be accepted because of insufficient sponsorship. We want to help provide Scouting facilities for the 300,000 left-overs and we mean to furnish funds and offer many of our war veteran Elks as Scout leaders and committeemen. The 68,000 Boy Scout troops for nearly two million Scout members are not enough. We have seen militant minorities working for some revolution or other; why not the militant minority of Scout-trained citizens sponsored by Elks who stand for our best institutions and traditions?"

Mr. Lewis quoted with pride the figures of Admiral Chester Nimitz that 40 per cent of his men had been Boy Scouts and that 60 per cent of his decorated heroes had been Scouts.

The new Elks' chieftain has arranged itineraries totaling 150,000 miles of travel to subordinate lodges this year. On his visitations he plans to pledge more vigorously than ever the Elks' campaign against internal enemies of America. The particular targets of the Elks are the Ku Klux Klan, Communism, Fascism and other subversive elements.

In its 79-year history the B.P.O.E. has donated to worthy causes more than $72,000,000, causing a total of $5,000,000 during the past year alone in addition to other sums given by local lodges. Lewis expects basic contributions this year will total more than $12,000,000. Much of this will go for care of war veterans in 152 hospitals in 41 states, for the benefit of crippled children and toward college scholarships for outstanding secondary school students.

Air Squadron No. 69, the Senior Unit of the Boy Scouts, is sponsored by the Arlington Lodge of Elks No. 1435, of which Charles L. Berg is Exalted Ruler. The squadron meets the first and third Tuesdays at the Parmenter School gymnasium for the Scout program phase of activities and model airplane building, and the second and fourth Wednesdays at the Bedford Army Air Field where it receives an intensive training in aerobatics, under competent military personnel leadership, the members moving up in rank as they pass the different tests.

This squadron is open to the youth of Arlington, 15 years of age and over, who are seriously aviation minded.

Henry F. Cummings is chairman of this committee, and Harland P. Smith, who had four years in the Army Air Force during the past war, is squadron leader.

Electrical Fair

noon, the Edison Home Service Cooking School and frozen food demonstration will get under way. This will be under the direction of Miss Emma Maurice Tighe, Edison's home service director.

On Wednesday afternoon, also at 2 o'clock, an all-electric home laundry demonstration, using automatic washers, driers and ironers, will be presented, again under the direction of Miss Tighe.

Will Award Bendix Washer
Valuable door prizes will be awarded at 4:30, and again at 9:30 each evening. Furthermore, a grand prize — a beautiful Bendix DeLuxe automatic washer, will be awarded at 9:30 on Wednesday evening. Other attendance prizes include a radio, food mixer, roaster, iron, clock, etc.

As an added attraction each evening at 8 o'clock, WBZ-TV will give the background on Television during a stage presentation entitled, "What's New in Television". This feature should appeal to the men particularly, and is should prove a rare opportunity to learn what is being planned in this field of entertainment.

Exhibits Outstanding
Visitors to the show will see under one roof a beautiful All-Electric kitchen and home laundry, together with scores of new 1948 electric ranges, refrigerators, frozen food cabinets, electric roasters, automatic washers, water heaters, ironers, radios, etc., in 34 booths on the stage and in the main auditorium. It will be the largest display of modern postwar home electrical appliances ever introduced in Arlington. It will give prospective buyers a chance to compare the features offered in various makes of home appliances.

"All in all, this is a grand opportunity to know more about Electrical Living and to learn how it will make home life easier and more enjoyable," J. M. Broderick, manager of the Arlington Edison Shop, said this week when he personally invited the people of Arlington to attend the fair.

Arlington Debaters On WBZ Tomorrow

A group of Arlington High School students conducted a debate for a local service club recently and from this group two students were selected to appear on the New England Town Meeting of the Air, presented on WBZ and WBZA every Saturday at 2:30 p.m.

These two students, Mary Pelletier and Donald Howard, will debate on Saturday on the subject, "Is Legislation the Way to Curb Un-American Activities." There will be two students from Belmont High School.

Committee Plans March of Dimes

Final plans for Arlington's participation in the annual March of Dimes for the benefit of infantile paralysis victims were outlined at a meeting of campaign committee officers held at Arlington police headquarters Monday evening.

W. Dale Barker is chairman of the Arlington Infantile Paralysis Fund Committee and Mrs. Robert W. Murphy is chairman of the women's division, while Miss Bernice H. Holmes is secretary.

As in recent years, the Arlington drive will be sponsored by the Arlington Auxiliary Police Association, directors of Youth Association activities, who will conduct a townwide solicitation starting Jan. 15, official opening date of the March of Dimes.

Heading the solicitation will be William J. Sinclair, campaign chairman; Frank E. Carlson, Carl A. Johnson, John C. Keefe, Harry W. Proudfoot, Arthur R. Kimball, Leonard P. Russell, Walter J. Taylor, Clarence H. Marsh, Chief Archie F. Bullock and Lt. Daniel P. Barry.

Those who have already assisted in the tremendous task of addressing campaign literature, etc., include Mrs. Mabel Adams, Miss Priscilla Wells, Miss Margaret Lyons and Mrs. Dorothy Fekays. In a letter already mailed to other Arlington organizations, Leonard A. Russell, chairman of clubs and organizations, states, in part:

"The 1948 'March of Dimes' opens officially on Jan. 15 and will continue to Jan. 30.

"Once again, the organizations of Arlington have an opportunity to share in this unrelenting battle against infantile paralysis.

"It is very important that we all do our part in order to raise funds to be available through the year, not only for equipment and treatment, but for research which is being carried on in an effort to find a preventive or cure for this dread disease."

"Last year the clubs and organizations of Arlington assisted us very generously in making the campaign a success. We trust that your organization will find this appeal worthy of your active support this year. Checks should be made payable to 'The March of Dimes' and mailed to Clarence H. Marsh, treasurer, Box 26, Arlington."

Fuel Oil Board Is Appointed

At the request of Governor Bradford the board of selectmen this week appointed a local Fuel Oil committee to consider requests of those who are unable to obtain fuel oil from their regular suppliers during the current crisis.

The appointees are: Benjamin F. Hickey, chairman; Herbert L. Hutchinson, William H. Dunn, Joseph J. Campobasso and John J. O'Neill.

The committee will meet in the office of Sealer of Weights and Measures Hutchinson.

The board has also sent the names of the committee to George H. Rockwell, State Fuel Oil coordinator.

PHILHARMONIC REHEARSAL PLANNED FOR LIBRARY HALL

Next Monday evening's rehearsal of the chorus of the Philharmonic Society of Arlington will be held in the Robbins library hall instead of the Robbins town hall because the latter hall will be engaged that evening.

Rescue

at a spot where it is 90 feet deep according to police, was John J. Lynch, 23, of 24 Surry road, who was followed in the icy waters by William McCaffrey, 21, of 39 Pine st. The latter had tried to rescue his companion.

Citizen Calls Police

A resident of Mystic st., who happened to see the near-tragedy, telephone police headquarters and officers in charge of Sgt. Harold F. Pick rushed to the lake with the police ambulance and rescue boat, and in cruiser cars. Arlington police also notified MDC police and the Fire Department, which sent its special service truck.

So quickly was the rescue effected by McCaffrey and the 20 skaters, who used a bathhook and ladder that the three youths were out of the water when police arrived.

McAuliffe and Lynch were rushed to the Symmes Hospital while McCaffrey was taken to his home. All three were treated for shock and immersion.

Bradford Donovan, 18, of the Arlington High School hockey team, was among those who formed the human chain, along with some of his teammates, it was reported, although most of the heroes had disappeared by the time police arrived.

The accident happened about 2 o'clock. Lynch fell through the ice. McCaffrey, in trying to rescue him, crashed through but managed to keep a grip on the thin ice.

Human Chain Formed
As Lynch disappeared under the water, the Wakefield youth plunged in after him and held his head above water while other skaters formed the chain. Two unidentified men skated to shore on Robin Hood road where they obtained a bathhook and ladder—MDC rescue equipment. Skating back to the youths in the water, they lay down on the ice and thrust out the ladder to the opening in the ice. Meanwhile, other skaters sprawled out on the ice and formed the chain, holding onto each other's ankles.

Reaching for the bathhook and the ladder, McCaffrey managed to make his way to safety. Then McCaffrey, holding Lynch's head above water, took hold of the ladder and both were dragged onto the ice. Police, who arrived by this time, assisted the skaters in the rescue.

McAuliffe is a graduate of Arlington High School and is a member of the Boston College freshman hockey team.

Parents of the rescued youths were notified of the accident by Arlington police.

A. V. N. A. to Have Annual Meeting

The annual meeting of the Arlington Visiting Nursing Association will be held next Tuesday, in Robbins Library Hall, at 2:30 p. m. Miss Elizabeth Barry, director of the Cambridge Visiting Nursing Association, will be the guest speaker. All interested are invited to attend this meeting.

Catholic Daughters To Elect Lecturer

On Monday evening Court St. Agnes, Catholic Daughters of America, will hold a business meeting at American Legion Hall. A special election for the office of Lecturer will be conducted under the direction of District Deputy Frances Burns.

Plan Vaudeville Show For Auxiliary Police

The Arlington Auxiliary Police will have a roll call at its general assembly in the Hardy School next Monday evening.

As a special attraction, six acts of professional vaudeville will be presented. A large attendance is expected.

Food Committee Holds Meeting

Arlington's food conservation program to help relieve suffering in war-torn countries of Europe was given further consideration at a meeting of the Arlington Citizens' Food Conservation Committee in the Robbins Town Hall Tuesday evening. Walter E. Lannefield is chairman of the committee.

It was voted to hold another meeting in the hearing room of the town hall on Feb. 3.

—Mrs. Lilla G. Mills of 44 Davis ave., accepted WCOP's "Invitation to Studio A" last week, when she took part in a quiz race.

STOP & SHOP WITH Susan Shaw

Hello, and Happy New Year. Do you know that you and I and the woman next door are the most important people in the world this year? Everything depends on what we do in the grocery store and in the kitchen.

There are starving people in other countries. Their hunger is a great threat to our freedom and our way of life, because hungry people follow the hand that feeds them. They will follow the type of government that offers them the most relief and security.

There is more than enough food in this country. It isn't necessary for us to go hungry ourselves to help feed other people. Careful planning, buying and cooking by every woman will help stop soaring food prices and share our abundant food. And we don't have to serve plain uninteresting meals because some fancy foods are too expensive.

Here are some simple rules to follow for better eating everywhere, and a fuller pocketbook for you:

Waste nothing! Use left-overs. Cook potatoes in their jackets. Don't peel carrots. Most of their nutritional value is in their skins. Use all stale bread and crusts. Dry them on top of the stove. Crush to crumbs with a rolling pin. Use for breadings cuts of meat and fish, to stretch ground meat and meat loaf, and in stuffing. Cream sauce, a little meat, and a few leftover vegetables turn into wonderful dishes with a bit of seasoning.

Save grains and money. Use lower grades of beef, vary the menu by using other protein foods such as fish, poultry, some eggs, some cheese, beans, nuts. Save bread grains by using rice, oatmeal, potatoes. Try sausage, weiners, hamburger and variety meats in various ways. Low grade cuts of beef can be made delicious and tender when stewed or braised.

Use margarine and evaporated milk in your menus. Milk and dairy products are vital and expensive foods. Conserve them. Use these substitutes in soups and stews, for baking and seasoning. Use evaporated milk in desserts calling for whipping cream. Be sure to chill it thoroughly when using it for whipping. Both margarine and evaporated milk cost so much less than butter and fresh milk.

Buy economically. Be sure you get the most quality for the least amount of money. Compare prices. Learn many ways to serve low cost foods. Watch for special sales of canned goods and buy in quantity. Select foods that are abundant and of dependable quality. Use fresh fruits and vegetables that are plentiful.

Serve only the amount each member of your family will eat. Clean every plate. Enlist your family in this campaign.

Every woman who buys food has tremendous power and a tremendous obligation. Let each one of us make it our new year's resolution to buy wisely and waste nothing to save the world and save the peace.

Shea Answers Elliott

The following is my public reply, together with that previously written and the whole is addressed to:

Mr. Roscoe O. Elliott
1 Windmill Lane
Arlington 74, Massachusetts

I am taking this means to reply to your public letter of recent date, dealing with your committee's avowed investigation of my charges made at the public hearing held on November 4, 1947 and confirmed by my letter delivered to you at your Boston office, on November 13, 1947, all as promised to you at the close of the public hearing.

You will recall that you phoned me at my home in answer to my request made, same occurring the evening that the paper carried your public letter. I wanted to hear from you personally your reason for printing this letter bearing your signature. I was surprised that you could be a party to such hypocrisy and chicanery, when the record shows that you were Chairman of the Board of Selectmen, by appointment to be sure, during a period when certain of these violations of Article 7A of the Town By-Laws occurred. I announced to you during said telephone conversation, that in justice to my good name, I would be duty bound to answer you publicly, much as I hated to take such action, for I have always found you a gentleman in your actions and I held you in high regard.

We have known each other since our high school days, some thirty odd years having passed and also we were neighbors in Arlington for four short years. So naturally since you had admitted to me, that you had been made aware of such irregularities, when you were serving as Chairman of the Board that I reminded you on the occasion of our latest telephone conversation, that this town government of ours should be a government of Laws and not of men.

I ask you as a citizen interested in the lawful administration of the official business of the Town, did you then act as you lawfully should have done, to carry out the mandatory provisions of Sections 1 and 2 of Article 14 of the Town By-Laws. Such inaction on your part in this instance, constitutes negligence, not only on your part, but also on the part of the other Town Officials charged with the administration of our town government.

I will state that I have found from experience, that certain officials of the Town have admitted to me that they did not know the contents of the respective By-Laws and Articles therein which governed their official acts. In my humble judgement, such men are not suitable or capable to execute their oath of office. You should know that the ignorance of a law does not constitute a valid excuse, when any violation occurs.

So much for my general reply and now I will reply to your letter, paragraph by paragraph; based on the records and as related to the By-Laws.

(Editor's Note: Mr. Shea's lengthy reply to Mr. Elliott, was delivered to the NEWS on Wednesday.)

An alarm of fire was sounded early Saturday morning when a truck operated by Joseph L. Beasley of 8 River st., struck an Edison pole at North Union and Decatur sts. The impact set off the alarm in a box on the pole.

PETRO SALES, EARNINGS HIT HIGH

Consolidated net earnings of $1,607,419 are reported by Petroleum Heat and Power Company in the report to stockholders just issued for the fiscal year 1947 which ended last June 30. These earnings are equal to 88 cents per share on the stock outstanding at that date.

Total net sales of all divisions, including all other income, were $48,472,685, an increase over 1946 of more than 140%. Operating charges totalled $43,773,356, and other charges, including interest and Federal taxes, amounted to $1,091,910.

Every Petro employee will receive the report which Mr. MacCart concludes by saying:

"Effective cooperation between management and personnel has been maintained at a notably high level. This is particularly gratifying in view of the general conditions which characterized the industrial year under discussion.
